Recorder Office Overview

The recorder's office maintains all official real estate documents, records birth, marriage and death certificates, sells fishing and hunting licenses, issues boat, ATV and snowmobile registrations, and is Jefferson County's passport acceptance agent for the U.S. Department of State.

Your County Recorder maintains official records of documents affecting real estate in order to protect innocent third parties in real estate transactions.

The Recorder's office is responsible for maintaining official records relating to real estate, handling vital records, selling and issuing registrations, and handling licenses and titles.

The Recorder's office also collects real estate transfer tax on conveyances of property, collects and reports auditor's fee for the transfer of property, and houses records for genealogy research.

STATEWIDE IOWA RECORDERS WEBSITE

The primary source for information about recorded real estate documents in Iowa is IowaLandRecords.org, the official statewide web site sponsored by Iowa's elected county recorders.

Additional Info

The Office of the County Recorder was created by the First Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Iowa in 1839.

The County Recorder's office is at the hub of the courthouse function to serve you. A significant portion of duties performed by other county officials is dependent on the work performed by your County Recorder.

Recording fees collected for the county provide a form of property tax relief.
