County Attorney's Office Description

The county attorney's office prosecutes violations of state law and provides legal advice and representation for the county. Jefferson County Attorney is elected to serve a four-year term.

- Your County Attorney is the legal advisor and chief law enforcement officer for your county.
- The Jefferson County Attorney's Office is responsible for prosecuting all state criminal misdemeanors and felonies that occur in Jefferson County.

- The County Attorney is also responsible for enforcing county ordinances and other state laws that apply to Jefferson County (See Jefferson County Code of Ordinances).

There are both full-time and part-time County Attorneys in Iowa. Roughly two-thirds of all County Attorneys are part-time and may handle private legal work in addition to their official duties.

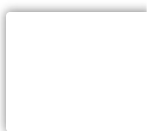

County Attorney Duties

Do Include:

- Prosecute all violations of state criminal laws and county ordinances.
- Provide legal advice to the Board of Supervisors and county and township officers concerning county matters.
- Represent and defend the state, county and its officers in officially related cases.
- Recover all monies (debts, fines, penalties, etc.) owing to the state or county.
- Present all mental health commitment proceedings and all juvenile delinquency and child in need of assistance cases.

Do NOT Include:

- We do not give legal advice to or represent private groups or persons.
- We do not file lawsuits for private persons or defend them against lawsuits, including actions for dissolution of marriage.
- We do not prepare wills, deeds or other legal documents for private individuals.
