

COMMUNITY RESOURCE DIRECTORY

Together with our community coalition partners, Jefferson County Health Center is proud to present the Jefferson County Resource Directory. This comprehensive document is your guide to all of the local, regional, and state level services available in Jefferson County and the surrounding area. From housing and childcare to healthcare and transportation, this guide is the "Who's who" to getting the most out of Jefferson County.

Click the image below to download the guide.

All information in this community resource is believed to be accurate at the time of publication. This resource is updated on an annual basis. If your business, organization, or non-profit is featured within and requires material updates to your information, please contact JCHC Marketing & Community Relations at 641-469-4220.