MISSION STATEMENT

The Fairfield Arts & Convention Center enhances the quality of life and contributes to the economic vitality of Jefferson County and Southeast Iowa through education, entertainment, events and the performing arts.

The Fairfield Arts and Convention Center opened in 2007 and is an interesting retreat by day and the jewel of Fairfield by night. The theater features an intimate 512-seat proscenium theater.

Fairfield Arts and Convention Center is home to the flagship Artist Series, featuring the best of music, comedy, dance and theater of national and international touring performances, and Cinema Fairfield, showing independent and first-run films. The Center provides the backdrop for the Fairfield Concert Association and the Barhydt Organ. The Center also hosts Cinema Fairfield, dance recitals and various events that showcase the musical and performing talents of Fairfield's residents.
